

THE DAILY STAR

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

Probably clearing and fair to-day and fair to-morrow morning.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

MR. S. A. CAMPBELL yesterday fell twenty-five feet from a porch on Ellen street, but fortunately escaped injury.

MR. L. C. WEIN's horse and buggy were stolen last evening from the Little Miami depot and have not yet been recovered.

THE LOCAL political Workingmen's Association held a mass-meeting to-morrow evening at Lincoln Park Hall for a discussion of the question of labor.

WM. E. HAMPTON, agricultural implement dealer, No. 140 Walnut street, made an assignment last evening to H. E. Randall for the benefit of his creditors.

DAVE FITZMORRIS, formerly a STAR reporter, is now Faber-shaving for the Post. Fitz is a hard worker and a thorough reader, and will keep his friends well posted.

THE first grand complimentary party of the Centennial Dancing Association will take place on Thursday evening, October 1st, at the Hibernian Hall has been secured for the occasion.

MR. W. B. FISH, formerly a resident of this city, died recently at Little Rock, Ark. His friends will hear something of interest to him by calling on Mr. Saul E. White on St. Mary street, between Mount and Cutter.

TWO men, named Joseph Dillon and Mike Hoffer, about six o'clock this morning, found a horse and buggy on Eggleston avenue and Court street. They had evidently been stolen and afterwards let loose. The party took the buggy and horse to Wilson's stable, on Court and Sycamore streets.

THE Woodward Alumni Association last evening elected the following officers: Isaac Simon, President; Ernest T. Fries, Vice President; A. E. Cramer, Treasurer; Henrietta Meuschel, Recording Secretary; Alan Sanders, Corresponding Secretary; Hon. E. J. Williams, Orator; Ella Humphries, Poetess.

SARAH BRONSON, a widow about fifty years old, living at 103 Beute street, died suddenly yesterday from acute neuritis of the heart. Dr. Moore was called yesterday morning, but failed to visit the woman. An inquest was held, and the jury in the verdict censured the Doctor for not calling to attend to her in due time.

THE JURY in the inquest held on the body of Mary McGinn, the particulars of which were mentioned yesterday, returned a verdict of death from intemperance. The jury further found that her death was hastened by kicks and blows inflicted by Annie Wilson, and she was censured for her brutal treatment of the deceased.

A VERY entertaining surprise party was given to Misses Emma Cook and E. Brooks at No. 40 Webb street, last night, which was well attended, and was an enjoyable affair throughout. The festivities lasted until the " wee sma' hours." Among the notables who were present were Messrs. Cook, Grossheim, Sigmund, Anderson, Drs. Walker and Thorpe; Misses Lewis, Jones, Murphy, Brooks and Cook.

THE body of a male child was found floating in Millcreek yesterday, between the Union railroad stockyard bridge and Hopple-street bridge. The child was handsomely dressed, having, to all appearances, been in the water but a few hours, and seemed to have come to its death by violence. The body was taken to the City Work-house, and an inquest held by Coroner Maley last evening. A verdict was returned of "death from causes unknown."

THE Calceogatheans gave last night their promised repetition of the "Cross of St. John," "Nervous Man and Man of Nerve," concluding with the "Little Log Cabin in the Lane," for the benefit of ticket-holders who could not gain admittance on Wednesday night. The rendition would do honor even to professionals. Prominently stood among the performers P. Duffy, who did full justice to his part in both pieces. M. Layan acted like a comedian to perfection. P. Griffin, W. Birmingham, Chas. Maesa and P. Lenham deserve special mention while the acting of two performers in the closing piece could not be surpassed, and did great credit to their teacher, Prof. Horensell. The audience were well pleased with the evening's performance.

A COLORED mad named Wm. Harris, who was arrested some time ago as a fugitive from justice, from Georgetown, Ky., made a bold attempt to gain his liberty last night. The papers for his requisition were brought to Ninth-street Station by officers of Georgetown, and as Harris walked from his cell he dropped his coat purposely. The Station-keeper picked it up, and when about to return it he found that Harris had left through the side door, through the Police Court room and down the Park way. A chase was immediately begun, and Detective Steve Mendez ran alongside of the colored man, who was yelling "Stop thief." He is now on his way to Georgetown to answer charge of burglary.

THE EXPOSITION.

The Flowers, the People and the Premiums.

The attendance at the Exposition upon yesterday was smaller than usual, the rain keeping up such an incessant drizzle that an India rubber man would not have dared to venture out without one of Boynton's armors. The concert of Rudolph Wurliizer & Bro. was highly enjoyed by the few who were present, the music being of the very best order. The flower display this afternoon will be one of the finest of the series, as all of our leading florists have entered for the contest. The Commissioners have offered extra inducements in the way of a new premium for the best fifteen pieces of floral work, which has served the purpose of bringing out many who would not otherwise have entered. The jurors in the various Departments have begun bringing in their reports, most of which have been accepted by the Commissioners.

MUSIC TO-NIGHT.

The following programme of music will be performed to-night in the Ladies' Department under the auspices of Mr. F. W. Helmick, the enterprising young manufacturer of organs:

PART FIRST.

In Madisonville, Columbia township, at Beiswenger's Hall, Saturday. Speakers, Hon. K. A. Johnston, General Tom Powell, Hon. James Gordon and Andreas Knell, Esq.

A Republican mass meeting will be held at Findlay Market to-night, and will be addressed by Gov. R. B. Hayes and Judge Taft.

The committee appointed by the Democratic and Republican County Executive Committees to make an apportionment, in conference, of Judges and Clerks for the next election, have agreed that in all the precincts within the county in which there was a majority for William Bell, Secretary of State, the Democrats are to have each poll in each precinct two Judges and one Clerk, and in all such precincts where said Bell's vote was in the minority they shall have one Judge and one Clerk; and in all those precincts in which Wyckoff, candidate for Secretary of State, received a majority at said election, the Republicans shall have two Judges and one Clerk at each poll, and in all such precincts where said Wyckoff's vote was in the minority they shall have one Judge and one Clerk. The Judges and Clerks so assigned are to be nominated by their respective parties. This gives the Democrats 32 city precincts and 25 in the country, and allows the Republicans 19 in the city, and 9 in the country.
